1. For the beauty of the earth,
for the glory of the skies,
for the love which from our birth
over and around us lies;
[Refrain] Lord of all, to thee we raise
this our hymn of grateful praise.

2. For the beauty of each hour
of the day and of the night,
hill and vale, and tree and flower,
sun and moon, and stars of light;
[Refrain]

3. For the joy of ear and eye,
for the heart and mind's delight,
for the mystic harmony
linking sense to sound and sight;
[Refrain]

4. For the joy of human love,
brother, sister, parent, child,
Friends on earth and friends above,
for all gentle thoughts and mild;

HYMN – For All the Saints ..... Ralph Vaughan Williams

1 For all the saints, who from their labors rest,
Who Thee by faith before the world confessed,
Thy Name, O Jesus, be forever blessed.
Alleluia, Alleluia!

2 Thou wast their Rock, their Fortress and their Might;
Thou, Lord, their Captain in the well fought fight;
Thou, in the darkness drear, their one true Light.
Alleluia, Alleluia!

3 O blest communion, fellowship divine!
We feebly struggle, they in glory shine;

All are one in Thee, for all are Thine.
Alleluia, Alleluia!

4 But lo! there breaks a yet more glorious day;
The saints triumphant rise in bright array;
The King of glory passes on His way.
Alleluia, Alleluia!

5 The golden evening brightens in the west;
Soon, soon to faithful warriors comes their rest;
Sweet is the calm of paradise the blessed.
Alleluia, Alleluia

IN MEMORIAM.....Gary L. Gatzke

ANTHEM – How Lovely Is thy Dwelling Place from Ein deutsches Requiem .....Johannes Brahms

*CLOSING PRAYER – A Camper's Prayer from The New Hymnal for American Youth

READER: God of the hills, grant us thy strength to go back into the cities without faltering, strength to do our daily task without tiring and with enthusiasm, strength to help our neighbors who have no hills to remember.

CONGREGATION: God of the lake, grant us thy peace and thy restfulness, peace to bring into a world of hurry and confusion, restfulness to carry to the tired whom we shall meet every day,

READER: Content to do small things with a freedom from littleness, self-control for the unexpected emergency, and patience for the wearisome task, with deep depths within our soul to bear us through the crowded places.

CONGREGATION: Grant us the hush of the night time when the pine trees are dark against the sky line, the humbleness of the hills who in their mightiness know it not, and the laughter of the sunny waves to brighten the cheerless spots of a long winter.

READER: God of the stars, may we take back the gifts of friendship and of love for all.

CONGREGATION: Fill us with great tenderness for the needy person at every turning. Grant that in all our perplexities and every-day decisions we may keep an open mind.

READER: God of the wilderness, with thy pure winds from the northland blow away our pettiness; with the harsher winds of winter drive away our selfishness and hypocrisy; fill us with the breadth and the depth and the height of thy wilderness.

CONGREGATION: May we live out the truths which thou hast taught us, in every thought and word and deed. Amen.

Peggy Pascal, reader (IAC 60-61, 63-64, 66, 69, iac Staff 74-75, IAC Faculty 92-98)
